

Indian National Congress

- A centrist party (neither rightist nor leftist)
- Espouses secularism and welfare of weaker sections and minorities.
- Supports new economic reforms

Bharatiya Janta Party

- Upholds Cultural Nationalism or Hindutva .

Draws inspiration from India's ancient culture

- Wants full territorial and political integration of Jammu and Kashmir with India
- A uniform civilcode for all people living in India without any discrimination.

Communist Party Of India (marxist)

Believes in Marxism-Leninism.

- Supports socialism, secularism and democracy and opposes imperialism and communalism
- Critical of the new economic policies that allow the free flow of foreign capital and goods into the country.

Communist party of India

Believes in Marxism-Leninism

- Opposed to the forces of secessionism and communalism.
- Stands for the interests of the working class, farmers and the poor.

National Congress Party

Espouses democracy, Gandhian secularism, equity, social justice and federalism.

- Wants that high offices in government should be confined to natural born citizens of the country.

Bahujan Samaj Party

Stands for the cause of securing the interests and welfare of the dalits and oppressed people.